THE PROSPECTOR

RESOURCE INVESTMENT NEWS

After leaving the radio business Michael transitioned his professional life to a media consultant. In 2002 he started consulting to the Prospector News and eventually becoming its Owner/Publisher in 2008. “The past 21 years have been a whirlwind, when I first started, I thought a 43101 was a zip code. What I know today about the industry is tantamount to the individuals who will willing to take the time to share their expertise and experiences. The key to good story telling is to have great characters. There is no shortage of colorful characters in our business.

We provide Daily news and Commentary about the Junior Resource sector. As an online subscriber you will receive a downloadable copy of our resource investment publication every 2 months, featuring commentary and Picks from all our top analysts. You will also receive our Weekly Prospector Picks Newsletter featuring the Oreninc Index of Private Placements, and a roundup of News and Commentary Highlights by our renowned experts.
